Iziko South African Museum
Tel: 021 481 3800

November – March 2010

Subtle Thresholds explores the complex dynamic between the animal, human and microbial worlds in the development and spread of infectious diseases. Curator Fritha Langeman has collected a fascinating pastiche of elements – including crafts and artifacts from the Iziko South African Museum, the University of Cape Town and the Wits Adler Museum – that together provide insight into the historic and contemporary role of disease in life, society and art.

CAPE HORSERACING SIZZLES EVERY SUMMER!

Each year during November, December, and January the focus of South African horse-racing turns its heat firmly on Cape Town's Kenilworth Racecourse. Grade 1 and Grade 2 feature races are the standard weekend highlights, attracting the best of the country's racing talent in pursuit of big-money and prestige.

The J&B Met, at the end of January, offers a purse of R2 500 000 - it's a social highlight of the Cape calendar. Colour. Fashion. Elegance. And fantastic racing.

Just 15 minutes from central Cape Town, Kenilworth is the country's oldest racecourse. Its restaurants, bars, race-viewing terraces, and information-rich tote facilities offer racegoers the complete racing afternoon.

Aside from the weekend events, racing also takes place on selected weekdays. You can call the Racecourse information line 021 - 700 1600 for an update on programmed events, or 021 - 700 1678 to make restaurant reservations.

If you're a horseracing fan, embrace the heat of Sizzling Summer - it is Africa's hottest horseracing season.
